

United States District Court
Central District of California

PROGRESSIVE SEMICONDUCTOR
SOLUTIONS LLC,

Plaintiff,

v.
QUALCOMM TECHNOLOGIES, INC.,

Defendant.

Case No. 8:13-cv-01535-ODW(JEMx)

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE RE.
FILING OF THIRD AMENDED COMPLAINT

On April 28, 2014, Plaintiff Progressive Semiconductor Solutions, LLC filed a Third Amended Complaint (“TAC”) in this action. (ECF No. 49.) Progressive Semiconductor did not seek leave from this Court to file the TAC. Under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a), a party may amend its pleading once a matter of course but consent of the opposing party or leave of court is required for additional amendments to the pleadings. Accordingly, the Court ORDERS Progressive Semiconductor to SHOW CAUSE, in writing no later than Tuesday, May 13, 2014, why this Court should not strike the TAC. No hearing will be held on this matter. Failure to respond will result in the Court striking the TAC.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
